For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits
Loss of appetite	Indigestion
Impurity of blood	Melancholy
Hysteric'l affection	Gout in the stomach
Inward weaknesses and debility	Pains in the limbs
	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

THERE came to the table of the subscriber, on Monday the 1st inst. a person calling himself and obtained a horse and gig on hire, as he said, to go to Ellicott's Mills, and return in the afternoon of the same day; and as he has not yet returned, there is strong reason to believe that his intention is to swindle me out of my property. He is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, apparently about 25 or 30 years of age, of genteel appearance, and well calculated to deceive.
Mr. PEYTON,
The horse is a grey, about 15 hands high, 9 or 10 years old, has a switch tail, a speck on the right eye, and moves swiftly. The gig has a green body, carriage and wheels black, the lining of blue cloth, red stuff top, linings, plated double outside joints.
I will give the above reward for the recovery of the horse and gig, and the detection of the scoundrel, or 20 dollars for the horse and gig only, and all reasonable expenses if delivered to me, No. 26, North Liberty street, Baltimore.

From education, as the leading cause,
The public character its color draws;

FOR THE GAZETTE.

PARABLE,

In imitation of the historians of scripture.

1. Near unto Beliah dwelt there an husbandman, and he was rich in land, and in possessions, and great in power.

2. And it came to pass that this husbandman ordered a jubilee for all his family, and his household, whether bond or free, and for his kindsmen and his neighbors, and for his dependents.

3. And when they were all collected together and feasting, and gladness was in his halls, he looked around him and saw joy in every face, and he was happy at heart.

4. And he longed to do some good deed, and he called unto him all his bond servants that were bounden unto him for life, and all his bond servants that were bounden to him for years, and he said unto them in the fulness of his heart:

5. Behold, said he, my mind is bent upon doing some good thing, and I feel compassionate towards all ye that depend upon my word; and now I say unto you before my neighbors, and my kinsmen, and mine household;

6. Thus declare I, when another year shall come around, there shall be on this day of that year another jubilee;

7. And then shall each bondman, and bondwoman, and bondchild, be set free unto themselves, and they shall carry with them camels and presents, and kine and sheep, inasmuch as their conduct from this day shall deserve.

8. Then the servants of this great man were joyful, and blessed their master, and bowed them down before him in thankfulness.

9. And behold from that day idleness and heedlessness spread among the servants, for their only employment was talking of their freedom--and they grew careless of their duty because they were soon to be released therefrom.

10. They met together in groups, and they anticipated the day of their liberation, and thus did they discourse the whole day long, and months were passed and still it was the same, and the year came round and it was still the same.

11. And when the jubilee came the master called his bond servants unto him, and he was wrath, inasmuch as they had neglected all his concerns and their duty.

12. And he said, behold ye are free according to mine oath--but ye depart hence without money, and without reward; for ye have wasted your time in foolishness and laziness.

13. And one man came forward and bowed him down, and said: Behold, master, I have done my bounden duty, and have well employed my time.

14. Then, replied the master; arise, and come hither, thou faithful servant; thou hast mixed with the lazy and was not affected by them; the example of the heedless thou didst not mind; come hither, thou deservest treble rewards, and I will make thee chief overseer of all my estates, and thou shalt have my confidence, and I will make thee great over many and richer than thy neighbors.

15. And thus saith the prophet is it with you: Ye that abstain yourselves from the world, and hide in lonely places, and live solitary lives, ye may be virtuous, and therefore be worthy a seat in heaven;

16. But ye are foolish withal; there are some pleasures for the good on earth as well as in heaven; for ye were not sent into the world to live solitary lives, and keep aloof from man, as if he were the savage beast of the wilderness:

17. But ye that test your virtue by mixing with the world, and adopting not its evil ways, your religion shall be recommended, inasmuch as it has been tried by temptation, and it yielded not, and ye shall sit high in heaven.

COUNTERFEITS.

Counterfeits, in imitation of the Five Dollar Notes of the Marine Bank of Baltimore, are in circulation. They are dated June 2d, 1817, and made payable to J. Rodgers. The engraving is well executed, the paper similar, the signatures and filling up so much like the genuine note in general appearance, as to deceive readily where there is no suspicion excited; although easily detected by those who are well acquainted with the genuine signatures. We give it as a necessary caution to all who are not good judges, to have the genuineness of notes of the above description ascertained before they receive them. [Baltimore Gaz.

PAYING FOR PEEPING.

Two women were lately prosecuted in the court of quarter sessions of Philadelphia county, for the crime of eaves dropping, or listening under the eaves or walls of a house. It appeared, however, in the course of the trial, that instead of eaves-dropping outside of the house, they had only been perping through the keyhole of a door inside of the house. The jury acquitted them of eaves-dropping, but directed they should pay the costs of prosecution, which amounted to upwards of $70. [Philad. Freem. Journal.

NEW RELIGIOUS SECT.

A new religious sect who have with reason assumed the name of LUNATICS, have lately arisen in Ireland. The founder of this sect is a woman, who pretends that she was one night suddenly transported to the Moon, where she was introduced to the queen of that luminary, and instructed in all the mysteries of the lunar faith. She and her followers, in number about forty, have taken up their residence on one of the mountains in the county of Down, and abstain from intercourse with all others. [ibid.

THREE SUBSTANTIAL REASONS.

It appears from His Catholic Majesty's proclamation for the liberation of Mr Meade, [see 4th column] that he was impelled to this act of justice "in consequence" of finding in array against him, the following formidable phalanx:

1st. The Executive Government of the United States.

2d. The Editors of Newspapers.

3d. The Congress of the U. States.

Had Mr. Meade not been immediately liberated, the following small addition would have been made to the above:

4th The Navy of the United States.

5th. The Army of the United States.

SIR GREGOR M'GREGOR

This celebrated chieftain, whose exploits in South America have been the theme of so much conversation in England, had a narrow escape, by the accidental overturning, near Wooller, of a stage coach in which he was a passenger for Edinburgh. A young lady in the coach had her collar bone broken, and was so much bruised, that she was left at Wooller. [London paper.

ALABAMA.

A gentleman in the Alabama territory informs us that the Indians have again become troublesome on the Federal road. A party of men from Fort Dale, in a skirmish on the 22d ult. killed two Indians, belonging to a party which had been seen frequently skulking about on the road for several days previous, and who, it is believed from their menacing conduct, designed attacking the fort—They have committed no murders yet—but have plundered several plantations, and carried away a considerable number of cattle, hogs, &c. The mail has been suspended until the danger be over, or some arrangement made for its safe conveyance. Governor Bibb has gone to Ft. Crawford, for the purpose of making stipulations with the Indians who surrendered themselves on the Escambia, and will thence proceed to the frontier to adopt measures for the better security of the exposed inhabitants.

RESPECTING ROBERT GOURLAY.

To the Editors of the National Intelligencer.

As Mr Robert Gourlay appears to be acting a pretty conspicuous part in Upper Canada, an outline of that gentleman's life may not be unacceptable to your readers.

Mr. Gourlay was born in Fifeshire, in Scotland—his father a very respectable farmer, of a yeomanry who have long and still do consider themselves of the highest and most eminent grade in Scotland. He was at one time worth upwards of 20,000l. sterling; but the sudden lowering of landed property, and having entangled himself in securityships, ruin followed. His son, from his youth, possessed a bold and independent mind, so much so as to have become somewhat obnoxious in Fifeshire, for what was termed, there, his republican principles.

Mr. R. G. has made a pretty extensive tour on foot through Scotland, and published a treatise on statistics and agriculture, somewhat after the manner of Mr. Arthur Young. Some few years since, Mr. G. removed to Wiltshire, in England, where he was pressed by the Duke of Somerset to take the lease of one of his farms at a rental of 500l. sterling. Finding that country dreadfully overburdened with poors rates, and a great proportion of its inhabitants (as he remarked) in a state of pauperism, he published a series of pamphlets on the subject, suggesting a mode of bettering their situation. The free style of his writings and the severity of his strictures, and his unbending disposition to the Duke, who is a weak man, involved him in a law suit with his Grace who now refused to grant the lease, which he had by letter engaged to do when Mr. G. came up from Scotland. The latter gained his cause before a judge at Salisbury; the Duke threw it into the High Court of Chancery; the consequence has been, that by delay and the enormous expences attendant on that court, Gourlay, with perfect right and justice on his side, has been nearly ruined. It was believed that his Grace of Somerset acted under the influence of the Duchess, who is said to be a very high tempered dame. Mr. G. belonged to the Bath Society, of which he was considered a very useful and intelligent member; by the influence of his Grace, who is, or was President, his name was struck off the list.

When at Bath the spring before last, Mr. G. called on me to procure information respecting the Western states of the union, having it in contemplation to accompany his friend Mr. Birkbeck to this country. Mr. B. has published a pedestrian tour through France, and one from James River to the eastward, both of which have been much read in England—he now resides in Indiana state.

Mr. G. declared to me, indignantly, that he must abandon his native country where titled wealth trampled down his and his family's rights. His object then was to visit the Western states and select a future residence in a state where slavery did not exist. He mentioned he should take Upper Canada first, to visit his connexion Colonel Clark, of Niagara, who commanded a regiment on that side last war, and whose mills were burnt during that contest. Other views however, appear to have arrested Mr. Gourlay's projected tour.

I shall close this sketch by adding, that Robert Gourlay is a man well calculated for the object he has undertaken. He holds a ready pen; he writes in a style of considerable force and pungency; he possesses a mind of energy and exertion, and a body capable to endure much fatigue. Although bold and decisive in his political opinions, he acts from real principle: there is not a particle of designing mischief lurking about him—in conversation he possesses a frank and honest zeal, the true basis of popular oratory, with pleasing off hand manners. And he is one of three schoolfellows who will do honor to Fifeshire.—The two others are Dr. Chalmers, the present famous Presbyterian Minister of Glasgow, and David Wilkie, Royal Academician, the no less famous painter of the day, in a style unique, and entirely his own.

Alexandria, 15th June, 1818. H.

From the Bellefont Patriot.

Mr. Brindle—The Merino breed of sheep having encreased very much of late years in this and the adjoining counties, the following directions for preparing the wool for the cards and for carding it, may be useful to many of your readers. The principal objection will be removed.—The owners should stand by and see their wool carded if they wish it to be well done. W. P.

Recipe for preparing and carding Merino wool.

The wool ought to be washed before it is shorn off the sheep's back. To clean the wool of the yolk, take equal quantities of urine and water; heat the mixture in a large kettle, so that you can scarcely bear your hand in it, and keep it that hot over a slow fire; put as much of the wool in as you can stir conveniently; keep stirring it with a stick for 10 or 15 minutes, then take it out and let it drain, putting a fresh quantity in the kettle stirring it as before. When it has well drained put it into a basket—set the basket in a tub, and place them under a spout of clear running water, stirring the wool until it is clean—then spread it out on some clean place to dry. When it is completely dry, oil it with Neat's foot oil, or sweet oil, in proportion of one pint to eight pounds of wool: the cards ought to card the finest common wool for some time previous to carding Merino wool; it will not do to card it after coarse wool; and if the cards are not good it will spoil the wool.

Weak lye or soap suds, will do to clean the wool, but makes it harsh.

The following is the royal Spanish order for the release of Mr Meade from confinement. It is truly indicative of the imbecility which has characterised the reign of the adored Ferdinand:

Translated for the New-York Evening Post.

Our lord, the king, having been made acquainted with the consultation which the committee of justice, with associates from that supreme tribunal, made to his majesty on the 4th of October last, has again minutely examined the proceedings touching the law suit pending between Mr. Richard Meade, a citizen of the U. States of America, and Mr. John Macdennot, a subject of his Britanic majesty, about the recovery of 1,050,327 reales and 20 maravedis, which were by Mr. Meade delivered as a deposit. It appearing satisfactorily proved by the said proceedings, that the deposit was really made in cash, that the royal treasury had acknowledged it so, and that in consequence thereof Mr. Meade could not be considered as a bankrupt, nor be subject to the imprisonment he was suffering; and although the like acknowledgment of the said deposit had been made by several royal orders, by the depositions of the ministers of the royal treasury transmitted in the said supreme tribunal by the department of the secretary of state, by that of the royal treasury, and directly by the reclamations made by the same supreme tribunal in the committee of justice, his majesty has been pleased to require again the opinion of the treasury department, touching a subject which has such an intimate relation with the credit of his royal treasury. By the exposition made by the said department, his majesty has been confirmed in the opinion he had long entertained, that the royal treasury could not but acknowledge that the aforesaid deposit had been really and effectually made in cash, and therefore ought to return the same amount in the same kind. In consequence thereof his majesty has deigned to declare anew the same, and to order, that as speedily as possible the sum aforesaid be delivered to the chamber of commerce (consulado) who has the cognizance of the suit pending between the parties as aforesaid.

His majesty has been realized with the greatest sorrow, the disagreeable consequences which were anticipated by Mr. Meade's arrest; this is evident having raised perplexing difficulties in the important relations between the government of his majesty and the United States of America at the most critical conjuncture, giving reasons to the strong reclamations of the latter, in support of those of their minister at Madrid, supposed to have been neglected; exciting thereby through the newspapers, the most unfavorable and alarming impressions in that country against the interest of his majesty; who has lately received information of the congress having resolved with the greatest energy to proceed to make severe reprisals on the subjects of his majesty.

In consequence whereof, and the motives on which the royal order of April 25th, 1816, no longer existing, and likewise those upon which the committee of justice of that Supreme Tribunal had maintained the imprisonment of Mr. R. Meade, being void, his majesty has been pleased to resolve that he shall forthwith be set at liberty; that the said deposit be considered as duly and lawfully made, and at the charge of the royal treasury; and that the lawsuit in all other points be continued as the law directs.

Of which I acquaint the secretary of that supreme tribunal, by virtue of a royal order for their direction, and to the end of its most exact and speedy accomplishment.

God preserve your lordship many years.
At the Palace, April 29, 1818.
(Signed) JOSE PIZARRO.
To the Secretary of the Supreme Council of War.

The letter enclosing the above says, I send you a copy of the Royal Order to the Supreme Council of War, commanding them to take the necessary steps for Mr. Meade's release without delay. It is an interesting and important document showing the prompt and efficient effect produced by the decisive measures pursued by the Executive and Congress of the United States, on the representations made them. Mr. Meade was liberated on the 4th of May.

From the European, (printed at New-York.)

When Dr Franklin was at Paris, he issued an Advertisement, to inform the inhabitants, that at six o'clock in the morning, it was perfectly light;—and even much more pleasant at that time, than any other hour in the day; he gave the Parisians that intelligence, as he thought few were aware of the circumstance. We mention this anecdote, in consequence of observing with what apparent apathy, the intelligence from Europe is received. We therefore inform our readers, that there still exists such places as Great Britain and Ireland—and that our publication is particularly intended to give the most interesting transactions which have occurred in these countries.

With regard to ourselves we cannot adequately describe the trembling anxiety, with which we open the packet, which will inform us of the health, happiness and prosperity of those to whom we are attached, either by the ties of friendship or relationship. The land in which we first drew breath, where our young ideas were first taught to shoot, the very soil of which is sacred from being mixed or amalgamated with the ashes of our ancestors; he would say, that were we to forget this land we would expect the God of Heaven to forget us.

To the politician, we conceive that the affairs of Europe, are particularly interesting, as we know from experience, that if the nations of Europe be embroiled in war, it materially affects the interest of almost every individual in America.

The peace of Europe hangs but by a slender thread—the animosities which were created by a war of twenty five years duration have not yet subsided—The political horizon of Europe appears overcast, and whether the sun of peace will continue to shine and disperse those clouds, it is difficult even to conjecture. Frenchmen must be feelingly alive to their present state of degradation, and we must know little of the inhuman character, and more especially of the French, if they thought we would be satisfied to remain controlled as they now are. The recollection, of past and lost greatness will produce the sting of remorse; but that will engender a thirst or desire for vengeance. That an explosion is feared, we refer to a letter written by the Prince Regent of Great Britain to the Duke of Wellington: in which after congratulating his grace upon his escape at the late attempt of an assassin, his Royal Highness admits, that the peace of Europe is dependent upon the life of the Duke; it rests indeed on a slight foundation, if the life of any one individual is likely to disturb it.

The present situation of Great Britain is of peculiar moment, after a year of great prosperity, as it respects our agricultural and commercial interests; either her revenue has been greater than we can reasonably expect it to continue, yet her expenditure has exceeded her income by several millions, and this in a time of peace; those therefore, that conceive that a wicked and profligate administration, have lavished the blood and treasure of Great Britain, for objects not connected with the interest of the kingdom, or not commensurate with the cost, as well as those, who believing that the exertions of that power, have caused Europe to be freed from odious tyranny—all should be strongly excited to learn the events which are now passing—Those who conceive that the administration of Great Britain, have trampled upon the rights and liberties of the country, by granting or continuing unmerited pensions or useless sinecures, dissipating the public treasures of the country, to render her parliament corrupt, and subservient to the vilest purposes of the crown, and those on the other hand who consider that under the guise or semblance of reformation, there are a desperation of persons, who are desirous of fomenting rebellion, in order that they may become possessed of others' property: yet we trust, that all will be gratified by a perusal of our columns; as we shall continue faithfully to detail the different events which may come to our knowledge; and from the various sources of information we possess, we have no doubt but that our publication will be found amusing and instructive.

RESPECTFULLY inform the Citizens of Alexandria, that they can be furnished to any size letter, at a less price than Plain face Painting. 600 acres of Land for sale.

THIS tract is situated in Westmoreland county, Virginia, adjacent to Mr. Garnett Hunter's Plantation, and contiguous to the waters of the Potomac. The neighborhood is good—water excellent, and very desirable situations for building. A considerable proportion of the land is well timbered, besides a good deal of cedar, pine and other wood, sufficiently convenient to make it an object for those who may be disposed to send it to market—it is nearly equi-distant from Baltimore, Washington and Norfolk.

Any one wishing to purchase may apply to ROGER JONES,

Also, a very valuable LOT, containing 140 acres, being a part of the late Mr. John Turberville's tract—within 6 miles of Georgetown, 3 from the Little Falls Bridge, and near to the turnpike leading from thence to Wiley's, in Fairfax county, Va. A great proportion of this land is exceedingly well timbered, and that part which is not, is so recently cleared as to be in an active state for cultivation, and already in a productive condition.—For terms, apply to PHILIP C. JONES, esq in Leesburg, Va. or to R. JONES.

For Sale,

Lee, esq. and extends to the road from Leesburg to the mill lately known as Miller's Mill, on Goose Creek, and not more than three quarters of a mile from the turnpike road now making. The furthest boundary of this land is not more than three miles from Leesburg, and the nearest, which is in timber, not more than one mile and a half. The timbered land will be laid off into 10 or 15 acre lots, reserving a sufficient quantity for the land now cleared and in cultivation. It is unnecessary to say that this land is as well adapted to plaister as any in that part of the country; and if not sold at private sale previous to the September Leesburg court, will be then offered at public sale, and the terms made known on the day.

There are fifteen or twenty negroes residing on the farm that may be purchased with it if wanted.

Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO.

THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phænomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstruse calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavoured to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.

THOMAS COOPER, M. D.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be printed on a superfine paper, with a new small pica letter; and will be published early in the ensuing summer.

II. It will be illustrated with a number of cuts, of which several have been necessarily added to the London edition.

III. It will be delivered to subscribers at $12—to non-subscribers at $14, in boards. The London edition sells for $18.

Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

February 19

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitin or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
